

DESCRIPTIONS of COURSES 1978

This section provides descriptions of all courses given by the University at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. The courses are listed in the schools and departments which give the instruction. The schools and departments are arranged in alphabetical sequence.

COURSE NUMBERS

001-099 Non-Credit Courses

Courses with these numbers are offered by the University to permit students to make up deficiencies in previous training or to improve their facility in certain basic skills without earning credit.

100-299 Undergraduate Courses

Courses with these numbers are for undergraduate students. They carry no graduate credit, although graduate students may be admitted to such courses in order to make up prerequisites or to gain a foundation for advanced courses.

300-499 Advanced Undergraduate Courses

Courses with these numbers are for advanced undergraduate students. They constitute the advanced portion of an undergraduate program leading to the bachelor's degree. A graduate student may carry 400 level courses for credit upon approval of the student's major department and the department offering the course. In exceptional cases, a graduate student may petition the dean of his or her college, in writing, for approval of a 300 level course for graduate credit.

500-699 Graduate-Professional Courses

Courses with these numbers are courses in the graduate-professional programs. A graduate student may carry these courses for credit with approval of the major department.

800-899 Graduate Courses

Courses with these numbers are for graduate students. Advanced undergraduates with a 3.00 or better grade-point average in their total programs may be admitted to 800-899 level courses; others, if recommended by their academic adviser and approved by their dean. At least 23 credits of the total required for a master's degree shall be taken at the 800 and 900 level except as specifically exempted by the dean of the college.

900-999 Advanced Graduate Courses

Courses with these numbers are exclusively for graduate students and primarily for advanced graduate students. A master's degree candidate may take these courses with the approval of the major department.

COURSE LISTINGS

1	2	3	4
(A) →	401. Comparative Physiology I
	(412.) Fall. 4(3-4) 240 or B S 212
(B) →	and CEM 132. Interdepartmental with Department of Zoology.
(C) →	A comparison of osmoregulation, digestion, respiration, and other physiological processes in a wide range of organisms.

This material has three categories.

- (A) The course number and title.
- (B) The material in italics which includes:
- 1 The former course number in parentheses if the course number has been changed within the past 5 years.
- 2 The term or terms the course is authorized to be given. Lack of staff or low student enrollment may preclude offering the course, particularly at the advanced level, every term for which it is authorized.
- 3 The term credits are designated to include class hours a week as follows: A(B-C) where:
- A = Number of term (quarter) credits.
- B = Number of class hours a week in lecture, recitation, quiz, etc., sections.
- C = Number of class hours a week in laboratory.

If the credit is indicated to be variable, the number of credits is to be determined at the time of enrollment. If the course is a non-credit course, the credit-equivalent is given in brackets.

4 The course number(s) or other information indicate the preparation or classification prerequisite to enrollment in the course. If no department code is listed, the course number refers to the course within the same department. If a department code and course number are listed, the reference is to a course in the department indicated by the code. The department codes and the corresponding department names are listed on this page. The prerequisite may be satisfied by the course or courses indicated or equivalent background. If a class standing such as juniors is listed, only students with that or higher class level are eligible for enrollment. The school or department office should be consulted in cases of question as to eligibility for taking the course.

(C) A brief description of the course.
