

DESCRIPTIONS of COURSES 1985

This section provides descriptions of all courses given by the University at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. The courses are listed in the schools and departments which give the instruction. The schools and departments are arranged in alphabetical sequence.

Refer to the statements on credits and Course Formats and Credits in the Academic Programs section of catalog

COURSE NUMBERS

001-099 Non-Credit Courses

Courses with these numbers are offered by the University to permit students to make up deficiencies in previous training or to improve their facility in certain basic skills without earning credit.

For information about remedial-developmental-preparatory courses, consult the Academic Programs section of the catalog.

100-299 Undergraduate Courses

Courses with these numbers are for undergraduate students. They carry no graduate credit, although graduate students may be admitted to such courses in order to make up prerequisites or to gain a foundation for advanced courses.

For information about remedial-developmental-preparatory courses, consult the Academic Programs section of the catalog.

300-499 Advanced Undergraduate Courses

Courses with these numbers are for advanced undergraduate students. They constitute the advanced portion of an undergraduate program leading to the bachelor's degree. A graduate student may carry 400 level courses for credit upon approval of the student's major department and the department offering the course. In exceptional cases, a graduate student may petition the dean of his or her college, in writing, for approval of a 300 level course for graduate credit.

500-699 Graduate-Professional Courses

Courses with these numbers are courses in the graduate-professional programs. A graduate student may carry these courses for credit with approval of the major department.

800-899 Graduate Courses

Courses with these numbers are for graduate students. Advanced undergraduates with a 3.00 or better grade-point average in their total programs may be admitted to 800-899 level courses; others, if recommended by their academic adviser and approved by their dean. At least 23 credits of the total required for a master's degree shall be taken at the 800 and 900 level except as specifically exempted by the dean of the college.

900-999 Advanced Graduate Courses

Courses with these numbers are exclusively for graduate students and primarily for advanced graduate students. A master's degree candidate may take these courses with the approval of the major department, with the exception of courses numbered 999 (doctoral dissertation research). Admission to a doctoral degree program is a prerequisite of all courses numbered 999.

VARIABLE CREDIT COURSES

For each variable credit course, the range of credits for which a student may enroll in a given term shall be specified.

Except for courses numbered 899 (Master's Thesis Research) and 999 (Doctoral Dissertation Research), the maximum number of credits that a student may earn in a course with a reenrollment provision shall be specified.

COURSE LISTINGS

	1	2	3	4
(A) →	401.	Comparative Physiology I

(B) →	CEM 132.	Interdepartmental with the Department of Zoology.
(C) →	A comparison of osmoregulation, digestion, respiration, and other physiological processes in a wide range of organisms.

This material has three categories.

(A) The course number and title including:

The course number suffix:

- H — Honors Course
 - 1 — Type I
 - 2 — Type II
 - 3 — Type III
 - 4 — Type IV
 - 5 — Type V
- Remedial-Developmental-Preparatory Courses.

For additional information about remedial-developmental-preparatory courses, consult the Academic Programs section of the catalog.

The General Education designation code in parentheses following the title:

- (A) — Arts and Humanities
- (N) — Biological, Physical, and Mathematical Sciences
- (S) — Social and Behavioral Sciences.

For additional information, refer to the section on Courses Approved for General Education Designation beginning on page A-3.

(B) The material in italics which includes:

1 The former course number in parentheses if the course number has been changed within the past 5 years.

2 The term or terms the course is authorized to be given. Lack of staff or low student enrollment may preclude offering the course, particularly at the advanced level, every term for which it is authorized.

3 The term credits are designated to include class hours a week as follows: A(B-C) where:

- A = Number of term (quarter) credits.
- B = Number of class hours a week in lecture, recitation, quiz, etc., sections.
- C = Number of class hours a week in laboratory.

If the credit is indicated to be variable, the number of credits is to be determined at the time of enrollment. If the course is a non-credit course, the credit-equivalent is given in brackets.

4 The course number(s) or other information indicates the preparation or classification prerequisite to enrollment in the course. If a course alpha code and number are listed, the reference is to a course indicated by the code. The alpha codes and the corresponding names are listed on this page. The prerequisite may be satisfied by the course or courses indicated or equivalent background. If a class standing such as juniors is listed, only students with that or a higher class level are eligible for enrollment. A student who is unsure of eligibility for enrolling in a course should contact the department, school, or college that administers the course.

GROUPINGS OF COURSES APPROVED FOR GENERAL EDUCATION CREDIT¹

Each student must earn a minimum of 45 credits in General Education in courses divided among the following four areas: written and oral communication; arts and humanities; biological, physical, and mathematical sciences; and social and behavioral sciences. In meeting the minimum of 45 credits, no fewer than 9 credits and no more than 16 credits shall be taken to satisfy the General Education requirement in each of the four areas. Students must meet the written and oral communication General Education requirement by completing 9 credits in appropriate American Thought and Language courses.

Beginning in the Fall of 1982, any student who has not completed the General Education requirements in the arts and humanities; biological, physical, and mathematical sciences; and social and behavioral sciences must meet these requirements in accordance with the statements on the groupings of courses in these areas that follow. If after completing a prescribed grouping of courses in each of the three areas the General Education credits do not total 36, the student must select an additional course approved for General Education from any of the three areas.

The planned groupings of courses approved for General Education in the arts and humanities and social and behavioral sciences areas are arranged according to:

Option A — groupings of courses arranged as three term sequences/series representing a broadly integrative perspective on selected topics or issues.

Option B — groupings of courses arranged according to specific emphases representing selected approaches to knowledge within the relevant area or emphases on topics or issues within the area.

The planned groupings of courses approved for General Education in the biological, physical, and mathematical sciences correspond to Option B as described above.

The General Education courses that are offered each term are included in the appropriate departmental listings in the Schedule of Courses. For additional information concerning the University's general education requirements, refer to the Academic Programs section of the University Catalog.

¹ Courses approved for General Education by the Academic Council will be counted toward the General Education requirements in accordance with the effective date for General Education approval. No course that was offered prior to the effective date for General Education approval shall be counted toward the requirements.

Any course that had General Education approval, but no longer has General Education approval, will be counted toward the General Education requirements if the course was completed during the period for which it had General Education approval. Any student who completed such a course should consult his or her academic adviser regarding the completion of the General Education requirements.

The current policy on substitutions shall remain in effect until such time as section 3. of the 1980 General Education Policy is implemented. At the present time, a college, or a department with the approval of the college, may permit or require its majors and major preference students to substitute certain alternative courses for those approved for General Education credit in the area which is closest to the student's major.

GROUPINGS OF GENERAL EDUCATION COURSES IN THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES

Students complete either Option A or Option B

Option A — Students take all three courses in one of the following series/sequences. Additional series/sequences of courses are available to students who elect to complete three courses in the Department of Humanities; each such series/sequence is comprised of three courses, one of which ends in number 1, one of which ends in number 2, and one of which ends in number 3.
